Department of Real Estate Announces Appointment to Real Estate Advisory Board

PHOENIX – Commissioner Judy Lowe today announced that Kim Clifton of Tucson, Arizona has been appointed by Governor Brewer to serve on the Real Estate Advisory Board. Ms. Clifton is the owner and Designated Broker of Tierra Antigua Realty which she and her husband established in 2001. Currently Tierra Antigua employs over 825 agents, holds the second largest market share in Southern Arizona, and has three Tucson offices, and one Sierra Vista office. Both Ms. Clifton and her company have received numerous awards, both locally and nationally.

Ms. Clifton has been elected to serve on the 2012 Tucson Association of REALTORS® (TAR) Board of Directors, and has held various officer positions on both the local and state Association of REALTORS®, including serving as the 2008 and 2009 TAR Multiple Listing Service President.

Commissioner Lowe stated, “Kim’s successes are attributable to her unique leadership style, which is to engage those she serves with an attitude of warmth, caring and a willingness to listen. We are fortunate to have her on the Real Estate Advisory Board.”

A list of Real Estate Advisory Board members is available on the ADRE website:
