Course content approved by the ADRE must be directly related to professional real estate practice and adhere to the specific guidelines as stated in the current A.R.S §32-2135 and A.A.C. R4-28-402, as well as serve to protect the public interest by providing relevant education to real estate licensees professional practice of real estate.

A.A.C. R4-28-101 "Distance learning course" means a course of instruction outside a traditional classroom situation consisting of computer-based interactive instructional material, requiring completion in the credit hours specified. A course that requires a student to read text, listen to audio tapes, or view video material without student participation, feedback, and remedial instruction is not a distance learning course. Instruction/delivery methods for distance learning courses may be presented by computer, internet, host/remote location. The host/remote location instruction delivery method must be classes that are held in classrooms with synchronized platforms, bi-directional audio and video communications between the host and remote classrooms, administered by a live instructor from the host classroom, and monitored by an onsite monitor in the classroom at each remote classroom location.

The following are examples of courses deemed as unacceptable topics for approval for continuing education credit: Prospecting for Leads/Listings/Buyers; Social Media; Computer and/or Internet; Negotiation Techniques; Body Language Interpretation; Managing Personal Budget; Home Decoration; Landscaping; Identity Theft Protection; Stress Management; Personal Marketing; Interpersonal Communication; Positive Thinking; Time Management; Safety. Other topics not listed may also be deemed unacceptable.

Overview of Course Application Requirements

- Review A.A.C. R4-28-402 for course content categories. Approvals will not be granted for any course material that does not adhere to these guidelines.
- A school, licensed or exempt from licensure under A.A.C. R4-28-404, must present all classes leading to licensure or renewal of licensure for approval by ADRE.
- Application Timeframe Filing Requirements (A.R.S §32-2135 License Time-frames, allows ADRE 30 days to process live education applications and 90 days to process distance learning education applications.)
  - Original live course applications must be received by ADRE no less than 30 days prior to the first course presentation.
  - Distance learning course applications must be received by ADRE no less than 90 days prior to the first course presentation.
  - Distance learning course applications with Instruction/Delivery Methods for Host/Remote Location must be received by ADRE no less than 30 days prior to the first course presentation.
- Only a completed application, with a detailed course outline, with time allocations, including a Desired Instructional Outcome, and the Attestation signed by an authorized School Administrator, will be accepted for processing (refer to www.azre.gov Education FAQ on “Who Can Sign a Course Application”). Prelicense course outlines must adhere to the “Outline of Prescribed Curriculum” as found at www.azre.gov.
- Only ADRE approved schools may submit a request for course and/or instructor approvals.
- All instructors listed on application must have a current Instructor number, except for guest speakers.
- The application must describe any teaching materials and/or aids used, including any student handouts and textbook titles. Please do not submit hard copies of instructional material to ADRE.
- A “credit hour” is 50 minutes of instruction, which shall include student participation/interaction, and at least one other method of instruction. (A.A.C. R4-28-101)
- Exemptions from Instructor Qualifications Criteria - “Guest Speaker” (including panelists) is defined as an individual who teaches a real estate education course on a one-time only or very limited basis, who possesses a unique depth of knowledge and experience in the subject matter proposing to teach. A Guest Speaker does not apply to Prelicensure or Instructor Development Workshop (IDW) courses. The Guest Speaker exemption does not apply to a licensed instructor who wishes to teach in other categories or specific course subjects that are not approved for that instructor to teach.
